CURTAIN RUNG DOWN ON MINER'S THEATRE

Famous Bowery Playhouse Is Closed for Good After Thirty-four Years.

UNITED WITH PEOPLE'S

First Home of Burlesque and Producer of Many a Present Day Star.

When the last laugh died away with the falling of the curtain at Miner's Bowery Theatre last night the famous old playhouse, from whose stage many a Broadway star has graduated, went out of existence. Its burlesque shows be transferred to the People's October 21. But from to-day on the old was going to close its doors created a the Bowery in years whose memories will be stirred by the passing of this

To consolidate the two houses the Miners had to pay a bonus to secure tenancy of the People's Theatre from Edelstein & Thomashefsky, who have been running Hebrew shows there for several years. The more pretentious People's will be continued as a burlesque house, with Tom Miner, a son of the late Harry C. Miner, as manager, of the late Harry C. Miner, as manager, of the bridesgroom, and Camilla Morgan, sister of the late Harry C. Miner, as manager, of the bridesgroom, and Camilla Morgan, sister of the late Harry C. Miner, as manager, of the bridesgroom, and Camilla Morgan, sister of the late Harry C. Miner, as manager, of the bridesgroom, and Camilla Morgan.

Sage a cluster of orange blessoms and carried an lovey bound prayer book.

Miss Leslie Murray, cousin of the bride.

Was the maid of honor. Her custom was of white existent of the late Peter Marie.

Of prim dentally.

Of prim dentally.

Of prim dentally.

Cardinal Farley. The ceremony was performed by his Eminence and was witnessed by twenty relatives and intimate friends.

The bride wore a gown of white satin.

The bride wore a gown of white satin.

The bride wore a gown of white satin.

The bride wore a gown of white satin.

The bride wore a gown of white satin. ng safety laws came along aisles were was best man. The ushers, all of whom clevating the stage" for thirty-four same starts in mong the well known stars who got theft starts or near starts in Miner's Bowery Theatre are Weber and Message Cline. Styling and How, Peter Dalley, Peter Dalley iam McAndrews, the minstrel melon man"; Dr. Carver, the famous and the Rev. Endicott Peabody of the shot, and William Muldoon.

Groton School, Groton.

is said for the Bowery Theatre entrained persons with a firm belief show what they can or cannot do.

theatre, was accused of almost everything under the sun but being an The from the drug business into that of manager and builder of theatres. When died, about twelve years ago, he owned a string of playhouses, including the London, Miner's Bowery, Peole's, Miner's Eighth Avenue, Miner's He was a member of the House of Representatives in the Fifty-fourth Con-is now being carried on by his sons. Harry C. Miner, Edwin D. Miner, mas W. Miner and George H. Miner, and their stepmother, Mrs. Allen M. homas. The Miners and their asin the Empire circuit have a total of thirty-six theatres.

The abandoned theatre property is ded what disposition they will make Plays and Players.

Marriage," by Elmer Harris, with of Music, Baltimore, to-morrow night will be seen in New York at the Hudson

The captains of all of the transatlantic winter Garden to-morrow night in dress uniform. Capt. William Cueppers Kaiser Wilhelm II. will be accom-by his officers and a hundred of the

The Princess Theatre in Chicago, which as eeen leased by William A. Brady, who inged the name to William A. Brady's cago Piayhouse, will open to-morrow hi with the company selected especially Chicago in "Bought and Paid For." The ago playhouse will be operated in con-tion with the New York playhouse. Mr. Misses Anna oresent at the opening. Edward Doyle, who of Gouve charge of the Chicago house.

Cosmo Hamilton, the English editor and the ushers. of the speakers at the meeting of the York Association of Biology Teachers at Asademy of Medicine on Thursday. Mr. Hamilton is here to wit premier of his piny, "The Blind-Virtue," at the Thirty-ninth Street on Monday night, October 28. Graham Moffat's playint, PThe Concealed and Philip Bartholomae's comedy, and They Lived Happy Ever After," will

CHOUTEAU-WILSON.

Heir to $500,000 Was Reared in

Ignorance of Prospective Fortune. St. Louis, Oct. 19.-It became known

Mr. Chouteau was educated at St. Louis and Georgetown universities. He did not know until about a year before his coming of age that he was heir to any considerable amount of money as his aunt, Miss Eugenia Chouteau, had reared him with the intention of making money a secondary considerable artion with him.

Jacques—Townsend.

Morgan-Rathbone. The wedding of Miss Mary Rathbone, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John H. Rathbone of Albany and niece of Mr. and Mrs. J. Archibald Murray of this city, to Theatre, one block north on the Bowery, beginning on the afternoon of October 21. But from to-day on the old

Mr. Fellowes Morgan, Jr., of Short Hills,
N. J., and this city, was celebrated in the Church of the Transfiguration yesterday. Bowery Theatre will be but a memory.

The announcement that the playhouse ton, rector of the church, officiating, assisted by the Rev. Richard Upjohn and the decided sensation on the Bowery, and there were many who haven't been to church was decorated with palms and white crysanthemums and there was a full choral old institution. In the farewell audience were scores of folks who came away. She wore a gown of white satin trimmed with duchess and old point lace with the idea of enjoying the show but to get the feel of the happy days of blossoms. She wore fastened at the cor-long age.

"One reason why we abandoned the a cousin. They were dressed alike in costumes of white chiffon and satin trimmed said yesterday afternoon. "Is because at the elbows and on the skirts with brown of the smallness of the stage and the marabout. They were large black velvet ack of room in the house itself. In picture hats trimmed with blue satin ribbo the olden days it could accommodate pink and yellow roses and carried bouquets of mauve crysanthemums.

made larger, gallery space was curtailed and the house would not seat more than 1,400. The burlesque business required more room, and we simply had to get out to keep up with the Mr. Miner also said that within the Peabody Gardiner, Jr., of Boston; Thomas ast few years there has been mani- Blumer and Frederick B. Reid of Providence fested a decided liking on the part of Frederick Pruyn of Albany and Gilbert

John, both of whom are dead; the late

Tony Pastor, Billy Pastor, Pat Rooney, the Irish comedian; J. W. Kelly, WillPa. The officiating clergymen were the "water- Rev. George Thomas, rector of Christ Church,

Francis Meredith Blagden of New York, that it was the originator of the popular and amusing "amateur night," at which half a classmate of the bridegroom, was best man. The ushers were Eartow Crocker, Harvard, '09; Douglas Crocker and Samuel in their histrionic abilties are per- W. Sargeant, Jr., Boston, Harvard, '67; mitted to go on a real stage, before an Evelyn du Pont Irving of New York and ever captious'and critical audience, and Elisha Morgan Gilbert of Utica, N. Y., both classmates of the bridegroom.

Following the ceremony there was a ception at the home of the bride's parents actor. He was born in 1842 and drifted Mr. Kelly will take his bride to Paris. more while he continues his studies

Pierce-Ellot.

BOSTON, Oct. 19 .- Miss Ruth Eliot, daughpie's, Miner's Eighth Avenue, Miner's ter of Mrs. Charles Eliot of Brookline and Brooklyn and Miner's Newark theatres, granddaughter of Dr. Charles W. Eliot, president emeritus of Harvard University of Milton, Harvard, '04, Dr. Eliot's secre-The theatrical business he founded tary, in the First Church (Unitarian) at now being carried on by his sons. Chestnut Hill. The officiating clergymen were the Rev. Dr. Samuel A. Eliot of Cambridge, an uncle of the bride, and the Rev. Edward Hale, minister of the church.

The bride was given in marriage by her grandfather. Her only attendant Miss Susan C. Lyman of Boston. Mr. Pierce was attended by Gordon Donald as The abandoned theatre property is best man. The ushers were T. T. Whit-very valuable and several offers have ney, Jr., of Milton; R. E. Gardiner, Jr., been made, but the Miners have not Leverett Bradley, James A. Burgess and lassmates of the bridegroom, and Lincoln W. Pierce of Milton, his brother.

A large reception followed the ceremony It was while she was a member of Dr Eliot's party in his recent trip around the world that the bride met Mr. Pierce, who is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Vassar Pierce.

BOSTON, Oct. 19.-Miss Olive Mason, daughter of Frank Mason of Brookline, and Raymond May Gunnison of Brooklyn, N. Y., son of Herbert F. Gunnison, business nanager of the Brooklyn Eagle, were maried this evening at the home of the bride's father on Fuller street by the Rev. Dr. Daniel Dulany Addison, rector of All Saints Church, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Almon Gunnison, president of St. Lawrence Uni-versity, an uncle of the bridegroom.

Miss Pauline Mason was maid of honor her sister. The bridesmaids were the Misses Anna Piepler and Louise Braune Brain went to Chicago yesterday to be of Boston. The best man was Hugh Abbott of Governeur, N. Y. Foster Gunnison of a brother of the bridegroom and Carl Black of East Orange, N. J., were

The couple became acquainted as class-

Miss Grace Eleanor Johnson, daughter of 219 Temple street, Astoria, and George U. Burr of Newtown, Conn., were married at noon yesterday in Trinity Methodist New York presentation at Church, Long Island City. This was the Union Square Theatre to-morrow which was recently completed largely s P. M. Mass meeting. Manhattan Lyceum, 64 Wass meeting. Manhattan Lyceum, 64 Which was recently completed largely s P. M.

through the efforts of members of the bride's family. The decorations were yellow and white chrysanthemums and palms. The Rev. Dr. Charles Elmore Barto of Waterbury, Conn., and the Rev. William R. Mc-Dermott, pastor of Trinity Church, per-formed the ceremony. The bride wore a here to-day that Auguste Chouteau of this city, who recently fell heir to $500,000 and is a direct descendant of the Auguste Chouteau who helped Pierre Laclede in founding St. Louis, was married on Wednesday in New York city to Miss Virginia Wilson of Charleston, W. Va., a member of the Wilson Miss Margaret E. Moore of Astoria and Miss Lace veil which was worn by her great grandmother at her wedding. She was given away by her father. The bridesmaids were Miss Marjory Barto of Waterbury, Conn.: Miss Marjory Barto of Astoria wilson of Charleston, w. va., a member of the Wilson family from which Gov. Woodrow Wilson is descended.

The maid of honor was Miss Ruth E. John Wilson is descended.

Because of the couple's short acquaintance, relatives of both tried to induce them to postpone the wedding, which was performed by Mgr. Lavelle of St. Patrick's Cathedral in the presence of only a few wirnesses.

Mr. Chouteau was educated at St. Louis married here to-day to Miss Margaret Bispham Townsend, daughter of Joseph Townsend, in St. Paul's Episcopal Church at Overbrook. The ceremony was per-formed by the Rev. William R. Turner, rector of the church. The bride, who was Miss Eleanor Townsend, her sisters, and Miss Harriet Jacques. /Charles E. Cotting, Jr., of Boston, was best man. The ushers were Joseph B. Townsend 3d, John A. Sweetser, Gordon Ware, Capsar W. B. Townsend, Clarence H. Clark, 3d, oper, Reginald Foster, George R. Harding and William F. Lawrence. A wedding breakfast was served at Rynham, the country seat of Mr. and Mrs. Townsend at Harris-Marie.

The bride wore a gown of white satin draped with old point lace and a veil of the of the valley. Miss Margaret Harris, daughter of the bridegroom, was the maid of honor and the only attendant ostume was of white satin, with which was worn a black velvet picture hat trimmed

Bryan-Livingston.

Robert T. Bryan, former tennis champion active a decided liking on women for modern buriesque productions, and in order that they could be made more comfortable it was necessary to make the transfer to the People's Theatre. Again, the actors and activesses weren't altogether pleased with the accommodations afforded by the ancient dressing rooms in the Bowery Theatre and something had to be done.

Miner's Bowery Theatre was the original buriesque house of the country in bad the distinction, it is said, of the distinction of the nong the racquet wielders of the East

After their return to this city Mr. and Mrs.

Johnson will live at Wynnewood.

Valle-Thorn.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.-Miss Frances M. Thorn, daughter of Mrs. Charles G. Thorn, and Jules Felix Valle, Jr., of St. Louis were married this afternoon at a o'clock at the home of the bride's mother here. Because the family of the bridegroom is in mourning the wedding was attended only by relatives and a few close friends. Mgr. Ceretti of the Papal delegation performed the ceremony. The bride was es-corted to the improvised altar by her brother, Charles G. Thorn. Charles A. Leonard of Littlefield, Ill., was best man for his brother-in-law. After November Mr. and Mrs. Valle will be at home in St

Phyle-Hrown.

STAMPORD, Conn., Oct. 19. Miss Heleu onise Brown, daughter of the late John Edward Brown of New York, and James William Phyle of New York and St. James L. I., were married this afternoon at 40 clock at the home in Stamford of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Ritch Jesup. The latter is a sister of the bride. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Henry Evertson Cobb. of New York. The bride's only attendant was her niece, Miss Helen May Jesup of Stamford. Judge W. Smith of New York was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Phyfe will live in New York.

Notes of the Social World.

Mrs. Charles B. Alexander, Mrs. Win-throp Burr, Mrs. Edward T. H. Talmage and others have organized two dances to be called the Colony Dances. They will be held at the Colony Club and will be for held at the Colony Club and will be for girls not yet introduced to society. The are employed to cheapen the cost of profirst dance will take place on December 36. duction and how they impair the nutritive have been in Europe since the early part of June, returned to New York on the

W. Smith, and his sister, Mrs. Chester B. Duryea.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard H. Henry gave a small reception yesterday afternoon at their home, 344 Lexington avenue, to celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage. None but relatives and a few inti-mate friends were present.

Mrs. Arthur Gibb and the Misses Gibb have returned to 14 East Fifty-fifth street from the Virginia Hot Springs. Mrs. George R. Read of 28 East Fifty-sixth street will give an afternoon reception on November 26 for her debuante daughter, Miss Fannie De G. Hastings. Mrs. Charles C. Barton and Miss Austine Barton of Louisville, Ky., are visiting Mrs. Clough Cosby Overton at 45 West Fifty-seventh street.

In New York To-day.

Cathedral of St. John the Divine, special welfare service, 4 P. M. Society of Ethical Culture, subject "Personal Responsibility for Social Betterment"

Manhattan Church, Broadway and Seventy-sixth street, speeches by Herbert Parsons and Job E. Hedges, 8 P. M. Mass meeting, Manhattan Lyceum, 64

UNEARTHED NEAR NILE

Results of Excavations by Art Museum's Force of Explorers.

PHOTOGRAPHS SHOWN HERE

Manuscripts That Throw Light on Old Monastic Life Before Arab Conquest.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 19.—Herbert Jacques been accomplished in excavations and f Dunster road, Brookline, Mass., was discoveries of antiquities by the Egyptian rector of the church. The bride, who was of the concessions granted by the Egypgiven in marriage by her father, was tian Government on the west side of the attended by Mrs. George S. Munson and Nile Valley opposite Luxor in the dis-Miss Eleanor Townsend, her sisters, and tricts of the modern native villages of Overbrook. The bride and bridegroom will make their home at Norwood, Mass.

is the site of the palace of Amenhotep of III. south of the temple of Medinet Habubeside the dikes of what is generally supposed to have been the pleasure lake he had made for his wife. Queen Tiy." From the results of the excavations in same lace, held by a cluster of orange can be surmised that the building of the blossoms. She carried a bouquet of lilies palace was begun some time in or before the eleventh year of the King's reign, when, according to the records, the lake was made, and it seems to have gone on through several periods of its construction with white aigrettes.

Thomas Addis Emmet Harris was his B. C. to 1375 B.-C. It was abandoned father's best man. After the ceremony by his son and successor, Akhenaten, Mr. and Mrs. Harris left for a short wedding who soon after moved his capital from by his son and successor, Akhenaten, girls with her and the party soon ousts Thebes to Tel El Amarna.

The work of excavation of this site up of Bad Jake by Jack Warner, a gambler from a nearby camp, who is in love with of the Seventh Regiment and well known cember, 1910, and was continued through that winter and the last with a gang of workmen which usually numbered from The cast is headed by Miss Helen Lowell 100 to 150. The palace was found to have of "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" and ceiling and figures of the domestic god Bes formed a dado around the walls above a band of amulets."

The museum's collection of antiquities of the Empire period is also being greatly strengthened by examples of polyenrome pottery from this site. Wines, oils and potted meats were stored in plain jars on the shoulder and stopper seals on which were written the name, year of vintage and source of contents.

Numerous examples of such seals and labels have been found in the magazines and store chambers. museum's collection of antiquities

The expedition has recovered a quantity of manuscripts that are an important contribution to the present knowledge of conditions of monastic life in Egyp before the Arab conquest

PURE FOOD SHOW WEDNESDAY.

Incle Sam Will Exhibit at Seventy Arst Regiment Armory.

The United States Government is in stalling an interesting exhibit at the Sev-enty-first Regiment Armory, Thirty-fourth street and Fourth avenue, as part of the third annual domestic science and pure food exposition which opens there next Wednesday evening. The object is to show feeding the sailors and soldiers in times of adulterated foods showing how chemicals quality of foods. There will be shown Mr. and Mrs. Alexander D. Shaw, who have been in Europe since the early part of June, returned to New York on the Mauretania.

George Stuart Smith sailed for Europe vesterday to join his mother, Mrs. Chester B. Duryea.

Guility of foods. There will be shown specimens of cioth dyed with coloring matter extracted from candles and ice creams. The purpose of the adulterated food deplay is to supply the housewife with an object lesson in the dangers of food frauds and the necessity of exercising scrupulous care in making purchases.

Mrs. Lewisohn Holds Fete.

At Heatherdail Farm, the country home of Mrs. Adolph Lewisohn at Ardsley, there was a large gathering of society folks this afternoon to attend the entertainment given for the benefit of the Hudson River Equal Franchise Society. The Morris Dancers in costume danced and Miss Marjorie Benton Cooke gave several delightful monologues. The Morris dancers marched across the field to the residence. The girls, in old English costumes, road in an oxcart. The men walked beside it, while a man playing a bagpipe led the procession. During the afternoon an address on suffrage was made by Dr. John Elliott. Flowers were sold by Mrs. Lewisohn, Mrs. Walston H. Brown, Mrs. Herbert Carpenter, Miss Ingersoil Brown, Mrs. Joseph J. Walker and Miss Genevieve Glendennin. Tea and cake were sold by Mrs. Arthur Lehman and Mrs. Arthur Rosin, Mrs. Lewisohn received, assisted by her two daughters. of Mrs. Adolph Lewisohn at Ardsley, there last night from Southampton and Cher-bourg, brought 112 members of the French Opera Company which will tour this counry under the direction of Maestro Alloo. concert was given by the company on $50,000 ANIMAL HOSPITAL.

Plans Ready for Building at Bond and Lafayette Streets.

An animal hospital which promises to be a model of its kind is to be erected soon his houne, 200 West Fifty-sixth street, after a bend and Lafayette streets by the New York Women's League for Animals. It is to cost about $60,000.

The ground for the building was purpany.

in the organization of the league and has became treasurer.

been its president since foundation. Mrs.

Speyer visited and studied the most important animal hospitals of Europe on her trip abroad and many of the ideas she thus obtained are to be incorporated in the plans for the new institution.

Mrs. Storage and van Company, of which he became treasurer.

in shipping circles Mr. Williams was especially well known. He was a member of the Produce Exchange, which he once served as vice-president; of the Chamber of Commerce, where he recently served on the arbitration committee, and of the

Within the last two years much has been accomplished in excavations and discoveries of antiquities by the Egyptian expedition now in the field for the Metropolitan Museum of Art.

For two seasons the work has been largely concentrated on the excavations of the concessions granted by the Egyptian of the modern native villages of the latter of the modern native villages of the stricts of the modern native villages of the stricts of the modern native villages of the current number of the museum members of explorers in the field and among the property a. Lafayette and Bond streets is tricts of the modern native villages of the current number of the museum of the expedition, describes the work of explorers in the field and among the ancient palaces and temples of historic temples of the beliding will be three stories high and will be acceptable to the new concessions at Luxor, which a modern temples of the building will be three stories high and will be acceptable to the new concessions at Luxor, which a material ifrom the period of the empire, a period which in the work at Matania and Khargah was only met with incident of horses, dogs and cats.

The league has new so members tile and the league has now so members the plant. He was a trustee of the Samk for Sawins and a trustee of the Linon, Harvard, Church, White-hall and Rumson Country clubs.

Mrs. Toront with the ideas the high and will be provided with t

WELL. "LOOK WHO'S HERE."

Schuberts Produce New Musical

Comedy in Trent Theatre, Trenton. TRENTON N J Oct 10 - The Shuberts afternoon for the first time on any stage a new musical comedy by Rida Johnson Young and Paul West entitled "Look Who's Here." with music by Jerome D. Kern.

which village has experienced a slump in prosperity. Herman Schmalz, the leading spirit, advertises in an Eastern paper for barber, and Sophia Brush, an old maid, aswers. She brings six pretty manicure There is much byplay over the shooting

Phyllis of Lost River. A parrot, Suphia's property, also figures extensively in the

"The Lottery Man" fame, who is making her reentry into musical comedy. in the large company are Gertrude Millington, Madge Kennedy, Grace Field, Joseph Phillips, James B. Carson, William Pruette, Donald MacDonald, Charles MacDonald, Waliace Owen and W. L. Romaine.

The piece was well received. After an engagement in Philadelphia "Look Who's Here" goes to New York.

23 YEARS ACCOUNTING FOR PLAY

Court Holds Profits From Every

by Supreme Court Justice Bijur in a suit of Agnes Herndon Andruss, former actress, against Hal Reid, playwright, and the Reid contended that the rights acquired Mrs. Andruss were not exclusive.

MILDENBERG'S LOST OPERA.

Metropolitan Company Says Loss

Was Not Due to Its Negligence. The Metropolitan Opera Company filed n answer vesterday to a suit brought by Albert Mildenberg, a musical composer, to recover $25,000 for the loss of part of the manuscript of an opera submitted for the prize offered by the Metropolitan in 1911 prize offered by the Metropolitan in 1911 for an American opera.

The answer alleges that the manuscript in question was entrusted to an express company to be shipped to Boston for examination by one of the judges in the contest, and that without any fault of the Metropolitan it was stolen with other manuscripts from an express wagon. Parts of the Mildenberg manuscript were recovered later and delivered to the plantiff.

The defendant insists that if there was any negligence it was not on the part of the opera company.

MAKE-UP BRUSH INJURES EYE. Miss Nash Plays Matinee in Spite of Painful Mishap.

Miss Florence Nash was making up for her part as Agnes Lynch in "Within the war and peace and the steps being taken to guard the public against food adulterations. The bureau of animal industry of the United States Department of Agriculture has one of the most interesting booths in the exposition hall. It illustrates the methods of meat inspection in the packing houses throughout the United States.

The exhibits will include a display of adulterated foods showing how chemicals of a brush she was using slipped and en-

The Liebler Company yesterday took a step forward in the reduction of theatre prices. Encouraged by the success of prices. Encouraged by the success of the Chicago "The Garden of Allah" company at $1.50 for the best seats, the Liebler Company decided to put in a reduced scale of prices at the Century Theatre for the Loti-Gautier play "The Daughter of Heaven." Beginning to-morrew the highest priced seat will be $1.50. The producers believe that the large seating capacity of the Century warrants the lower prices. Survey Associates Chartered. Miss Jane Addams is one of the organ izers of the Survey Associates, incorporated in the Supreme Court yesterday, to promote the cause of constructive philanthropy exclusively by educational methods, including the publication and circulation of cluding the publication and circulation of books, pamphiets and periodicals. Among the other incorporators are Robert W. deforest, Dr. Edward T. Devine, John M. tilenn, manager of the Sage Foundation; Robert S. Brewster, Julian W. Mack, Paul M. Warburg, V. Everit Macy and Simon N. Patton of Philadelphia. The organization will operate in New York and other large cities.

A. W. Kelley Jr.'s Bachelor Dinner Augustus W. Kelley, Jr., who will marry

Miss Mildred Page Johnson, daughter by a former marriage of Mrs. Charles E. Bayne French Opera Company Arrives. in Grace Church chantry on Wednesday afternoon, gave his farewell bachelor dinner last night at the Yale Club. His guests were Le Roy Miller
Donald L. Moore
Alfred Mackay
Edwin V. Kane
William G. Austin
Ralph H. Hubbard
Arthur Bernay
Boswell Tripp James I. Coddington Harry V. C. Fish Littleton H. Fitch John S. Kliner Ellsworth Ford Carleton Kelley Thomas L. Johnson

PERRY PENTY WILLIAMS.

Prominent in Shipping Circles.

Perry Penty Williams died yesterday at chased several months ago for $66,500 through contributions by members and friends of the organization. The hospital was then planned and architects commissioned to draw up specifications.

The plans for erecting the building did not take definite shape, however, until the return last week from Europe of Mrs.

James Speyer, who is the moving spirit lin the organization of the league and has became treasurer. Mr. Williams was for a short time a memcivil war and was wounded once. When he retired from the service at the end of he war he entered the customs department of the Government, with which he had since been connected. He is survived by two daughters and a sister.

The Rt. Rev. John Clane

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. SLIGO. Ireland. Oct. 19.—The Rt. John Clancy, Roman Catholic Bishop of Elphin, is dead.

rick's College, Maynooth. He was professer in the Diocesan College of Silgo from 1883 to 1887 and professor of rhetoric and English literature in Maynooth College from George Eisler.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 19,-George Eisler, the surviving member of the firm of Weis-brod & Hess, brewers, died at his Bome here He was one of the best known German American residents of the city. ber of the firm, died after after an illness of a few days. Christian Hess, the second was connected with every large German so clety in the city. He was a member of St. Michael's German Lutheran Church.

BOSTON, Oct. 19.—George B. Barnes, one of the pioneer tobacco growers of the Connecticut Valley, died at his home in Hatfield last night, aged 83. He was said to have been the first to demonstrate the possibilities of the Connecticut Valley for raising to-bacco. For many years while a resident of Performance Belong to Mrs. Andrans An accounting of every performance of of Trinity Episcopal Church of that city. He is survived by his wife, three sons and a daughter.

tilness of one week. He was born in th city in 1858, but lived here only during the last five years of his life. He spent thi I two brothers, James G. and William Affleck

Mrs. B. Franklin Smith.

Special Cable Despatch to The Sun. PARIS, Oct. 19.—Mrs. B. Franklin Su laughter of the late U. S. de Wolf of Bristol, R. l., is dead at the age of 72. She was the mother of Lady Austin Lee of the British Embassy at Paris.

William D. Rutan,

William D. Rutan, postmaster at Newark during Cleveland's administration and former internal revenue collector, died last light at his home from a complication and two children survive him. William McGlbbe

William McGlbbon, a retired insurance broker and formerly a member of the Stock Exchange, died suddenly of heart rouble on Friday at his home, 269 S trouble on Friday at his home, 269 St. James place, Brooklyn. He was born in St. Stephen's, New Brunswick, and before coning to New York was one of the leading lumber merchants in Canada. Three some and a daughter survive him.

Public Exhibitions and Sales of Literary Collections

Anderson Galleries

Madison Avenue at Fortleth St.

THE FINE LIBRARY of Charles Johnston of Chicago, embracing First Editions in Early and Later English Literature, Rarities in the Writings of Bacon, Beaumont and Fletcher, Burns, Byron, Carlyle, Davenant, Dickens, Goldsmith, Hamerton, Ireland, Jackson, Keats, Lamb, Shelley, Swin-Thackeray and others. Extra illustrated volumes and many Publications of the Book Clubs. Now on FREE EXHIBI-TION. To be sold Monday and Tuesday afternoons and evenings and Wednesday afternoon, October 21st, 22d, 23d.

AMERICANA, Part I. of the collection of E. A. Housman of Connecticut, including many early and scarce imprints: State and Local Histories: Rare Indian Captivities Scarce Almanacs and Broadsides: Many Important Autographs and Books Relating to the Revolution, War of 1812, and the Civil War. Now on FREE EXHIBITION. To be sold on the Afternoons of Thursday and PRINTS, BROADSIDES, AND AUTO-GRAPHS, being Part III. of the Benson J. Lossing Collection of Americana. Many Rare Items. Now on FREE EXHIBITION. To be Sold on the afternoon and evening of Monday, October 28th.

Sales begin at 2:30 and 8:15 o'clock. Catalogues free.

The Anderson Galleries NEW YORK

SON OF PORNEES OF GRICE LINE AND MISS SHOTTER CARRIES OFF HONORS AT LENOX

Her Hunter Ballyhooley Wins Championship at the Lenox Horse Show.

SOCIETY OUT IN FORCE

Dinner Follows Day of Notable Events on Bellefontaine Meadows.

LENOX, Mass., Oct. 19.-In spite of inpleasant weather the annual Lenox horse show on Bellefontaine Meadow this afternoon was successfully carried out. Mr. and Mrs. Giraud Foster gave a luncheon at their villa before the show to forty of the participants and officials. Some of those who rode in the ring were Miss Vera Bloodgood, Miss Kate Cary, Mrs. Herbert Parsons, Miss Elizabeth L. Turnure, Miss Isabel Shotter, Miss Mary Shotter, Miss Elizabeth Hoyt, Mrs David T. Dana, Giraud Foster, J. Van Ness Philip, David T. Dana, Giraud Foster, Jr., Warrick Bonsal, Miss Edith Bon-

The Shotter stable won the high honors in the show. Ballyhooley, Miss Isabe Shotter's Irish hunter, was not only the best horse over hurdles but he won the championship, defeating Miss Vera Bloodgood's Jack, fresh from the State fairs his death he was in the sugar department good's Jack, fresh from the State fairs of the appraiser's office at the Customs of Massachusetts and Connecticut, where House. Col. French served all through the Miss Bloodgood had won the first awards. Miss Mary Shotter's chestnut mare horses under 15.2.

Ballyhooley has brought great fame to the Shotter stable, for to-day for the fourth time he was judged the best in the region. He also won three times the president's cup at the Berkshire hunt races, a trophy offered by Giraud Foster In the class for ponies, 11.2 and under

Miss Vera Bloodgood's chestnut mare n 1856, and was educated at the Marist Paula, an old Madison Square Garden prothers school and afterward at St. Pat- entrant, won the blue. Miss Edith Ben-Paula, an old Madison Square Garden entrant, won the blue. Miss Edith Bensel's Cock Robin was second. Giraud Foster Jr.'s Ginger, third, and George E. Turnure's Brownie, fourth Miss Elste Parson's Scamp was also shown. In the competition by hunters over hurdles, in which performance counted 50 per cent., Miss Isabel Shotter on Ballyhooley won the blue. Miss Bloodgood on Jack was second and George E. Turnure's Myrtle third and Miss Heloise Meyer's Phyllis fourth. Miss Shotter's Exchange, Mrs. David T. Dana's Mint Julep and Miss Elizabeth Hoyt's Wood Ashes also competed.

The largest class of the day was the saddle horses under 15.2 and 14.2. Miss Mary Shotter on Frivolity, a chestnut gelding, won the first award. Mrs. David T. Dana's Mint Julep was second, George E. Turnure's Napoleon third and Miss Kate Cary's Cosset fourth.

There followed the championship class

Kate Cary's Cosset fourth.

There followed the championship class for all horses having won a first or a second award in the county. Again Ballyhooley was given the award. Miss Vera Bloodgood on Jack received the reserve.

The horse show was followed to-night by the annual dinner of the Lenox Club, at which President George W. Folsom presided.

ENGAGED.

ARRIS MARIE .- By his Eminence the Cardina! Archbishop of New York, in his private chanel on Saturday October 19 Leonilo Marie, daughter of the late Joseph Marie.

to Charles N. Harris.

DIED. DEE. On October 19, 1912, Henry Clay Adee. Services at his late residence, 232 East 82d st., Sunday, October 20, at 4 P. M. Interment private. Kindly omit flowers.

AFFLECK On October 19, 1912, Brank B., son of the late William and Emma Affeck.

Funeral services at the residence of his brother, 218 Warburton av., Yonkers, N. Y., Monday, October 21, at 2 P. M. COLGATE.-Suddenly, on Thursday, October 17. 1912, Marian Townsend, wife of Craig Coigate.

Uneral services will be held at St. Bartholomew's Church, corner 44th it. and Madison avon Sunday at 2:30 P. M. Interment private.

COTTRELL. On Friday, October 18, at her home, Westerly, R. I., Harriet Morgan Cot-trell, wife of Charles P. Cottrell. Funeral services at her late home on Sunday, RENCH .- On October 19. Col. Peter French. son of the late Peter and Sally French. Services at 106 Past 19th st., Sunday, October 20, 8:39 P. M. Interment private. MILITARY ORDER OF THE LOTAL LEGION OF THE UNITED STATES. COMMANDERY STATE OF NEW YORK .- Companions are in-

By order of the Commander. WILLIAM S. COOSWELL, Recorder. GREEN .- At Belle Haven, Greenwich, Conn., on the 18th day of October, 1912, Esther Green. wife of Adolphus W. Green.
Funeral services will be held at St. Mary's Church, Greenwich, on Sunday, October 20.

at 2:30 P. M. Special cars will be attached to New York, New Haven and Hartford Rail-road train leaving Grand Central Station at ESEROLE.-On October 18, 1912, at 539 Madison av., New York city, after a short illness. Abreham Meserole, beloved son of Evelina A. Meserole and the late Jeremiah V. Meserole, in his 534 year. Funeral service at his late residence, 539 Madison av., Monday afternoon, October 21, at 3 o'clock. Interment at the convenience of the REEVES .- Harry, October 17, aged 50. Services "THE FUNERAL CHURCH." 241 West 23d st. (FRANK CAMPBELL BUILDING). Time later. Automobile cortege.

APPAN.—On Thursday, October 17, 1912, at New York Hospital, of pneumonia, Charles S. Tappan. Funeral and interment Gloucester, Mass. VALTER.—On October 19, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Charles W. Cooper, 113

Fast 21st st., Naomi Rhoads, widow of Thomas Waiter of Wilmington, Del., in her 80th year. Funeral private. WILLIAMS. - At his residence, on Saturday, October, 19, Perry Pentz, husband of Elizabeth Knevals Williams and son of the late John S. and Mary Maclay Williams. Funeral services at the Church of Zion and

St. Timothy, 57th st. west of 8th av., on Tuesday, October 22, at 10 A. M. UNDERTAKERS.

1324 CHEL FRANK E. CAMPBELL

A LADY and daughter going abroad in January will chaperone a few congenial people. Refer-ences exchanged. For further particulars address N. Box 114, Sun Office.